The Olympians will not only address issues about speed and technique they will also share with the youth valuable information about themselves and the importance of getting a good education. Some of these Olympians have overcome great odds to become Olympic Legends but more importantly to become educated. Our youth need to know that in spite of their circumstances they can succeed in reaching what ever goals they set for themselves. The Eddie Hart All In One Foundation's "Olympians and Friends Saving Youth" campaign is centered around the idea that our youth can be successful like the Olympians and friends such as government leaders/ officials, business owners sponsors, donors, and local citizens.

The Clinic is hosted at Pittsburg High School, 250 School St, Pittsburg, CA on July 14, 2007 at 9:00am. (Cost: $20 per Youth, but no youth will be turned away)This event will provide a variety of information to the youth of Pittsburg and surrounding communities.
